TALLER PREPARACION PRUEBA DE COMPETENCIAS PRIMER TRIMESTRE
2018
INGLES GRADO 11

1. Write down 10 sentences in present tense and rewrite them in past tense and future tense each one.
2. Write down 8 sentences in present perfect tense each one with the question and positive and negative answer.
3. Read the next story carefully

Once upon a time a Wolf was lapping at a spring on a hillside, when, looking up, what should he see but a Lamb just beginning to drink a little lower down.

"There's my supper," thought he, "if only I can find some excuse to seize it."

Then he called out to the Lamb, "How dare you muddle the water from which I am drinking?"

"Nay, master, nay," said Lambikin; "if the water be muddy up there, I cannot be the cause of it, for it runs down from you to me."

"Well, then," said the Wolf, "why did you call me bad names this time last year?"

"That cannot be," said the Lamb; "I am only six months old."

"I don't care," snarled the Wolf; "if it was not you it was your father;" and with that he rushed upon the poor little Lamb and ate her all up. But before she died she gasped out:

"Any excuse will serve a tyrant."

4. Using your own words write down a summary of the story 7 lines

5. List the unknown words and look up them in the dictionary
6. Choose 5 words of the list and write down five sentences with each one using the tenses (simple past, present tense, simple future, past progressive and present progressive)
7. Design 4 ICFES questions taking into account the story, as in the next example:

The phrase “ any excuse will serve a tyranny”, means:

- a. That the wolf always has the reason
- b. That you can get whatever you want using the excuses you invent
- c. That an excuse can be accept by others
- d. That a tyrant doesn´t have words to say
