In the morning: The mornings are great for creative people. We're going to have art and drawing classes, drama classes and we're going to play music together too. If you play an instrument - bring it to camp! We rehearse every day, and have a concert every weekend.

In the afternoon: We're going to get active! We're going to go hiking and horse riding in the forest, swimming in the lake, and canoeing and white water rafting in the river.

In the evening: The evenings are for relaxing. We're going to have a party EVERY night with music, a barbecue, and stories around the campfire. Or if you prefer, you can watch a movie in the movie tent.

"Hey Mom! I am swimming!"

"Yes honey, you are swimming."

"Mom, are you watching me?"

"Yes, honey. Of course I am watching you!"

Diego is trying to splash water onto her book. She is trying to ignore this.

"Mom! I am holding my breath under water."

The book is getting really exciting. The police are solving a crime. Diego's mother is trying to concentrate.

"Mom! You are not even watching me!"

"Yes, Diego! I am watching you and I am reading a book. I am doing both things at the same time."

"Mom, are you paying attention? I am doing a handstand."

In the book, the police officer is chasing a suspect. Diego's mother is hardly breathing.

Diego is being quiet for once. Too quiet. Suddenly, Diego's mother is looking around for Diego. She cannot find him. Suddenly, time is standing still. Suddenly, she isn't breathing at all.
